APPLICATIONS TO ATTEND FALL SESSION OF GLENDALE'S HOA ACADEMY DUE BY SEPT. 18

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Want to learn how to more effectively serve on the board of your homeowners association, or learn more about the operations of homeowners' associations in general?

Then plan to attend the next session of Glendale's Homeowners' Association (HOA) Academy. Applications are available now and must be submitted by Sept. 18.

The eight-session educational program is open to all Glendale HOA board members and residents who want to learn more about the operations of HOAs. Industry professionals, including lawyers, certified public accountants and management company specialists teach this informative course.

Topics for each of the eight sessions vary, which allows busy residents to attend the entire series or select sessions relating to their interest. A review of HOA law in Arizona is also part of the course.

HOA classes will be on Thursday evenings between 6 to 8:30 p.m. and Saturday mornings between 9 to 11:30 a.m. The course begins on Oct. 7 and ends on Oct. 28.

Applications are available on the city's website at:

www.glendaleaz.com/CommunityPartnerships or by calling the Neighborhood Partnership Office at (623) 930-2868.
